A Strange Combination

By: Sahasra Krishna Rayachoti

Have you ever thought of a perfect combination of sweet, spicy, sour, and salty? There are many strange combinations I love to eat. One of them includes chocolate, Oreos, chips, and seaweed, which is very delicious, and I love to eat it every day.

One day when I came home, I was starving. I asked mom, "Can I get some snacks?"

Mom replied, "They should be in the pantry."

I went into the pantry to get some snacks, but there were very few snacks left. Given the few choices I had, I took some leftover chocolates, Oreos, chips, and seaweed and mixed them together. My mom said "

When I first ate it, it made my taste buds burst. It was so good I had to eat it again the next day. Soon, it became an everyday thing for me.

The sweet and salty combination made my senses tingle with excitement. While the spicy and sour combination made my tongue burn. Sweet and spicy is more than a flavor, and I truly enjoy it. I offered this combination to my brother and he hated it. I liked it and wanted to eat it every day.

It is a snack suitable for food , and the best snack combination I have ever tried. Since it is a mixture of sweet and spicy making you not crave for each other. It was crunchy and soft at the same time making it a perfect combination. I suggest you should give it a try.

The Time I Tried Dirt Coffee with Ice Cream

By: Vibha Sista

Yum! Yummy! Amazing! I thought as I was eating my McFlurry in McDonalds.

"Vibha, stop eating the ice cream like that, you're such a pig! You have ice cream all over your bag," said my sister Anika, looking at me in disgust.

"It's called a McFlurry," I corrected her.

"Whatever," she said to me.

"And also my bag is white, the ice cream will blend in with the bag," I said with a mouthful of ice cream.

"My coffee is here!!!!!" Anika squealed with delight

"Eww... why is it black?" I asked. "It looks like dirt water," I joked.

"Well maybe some coffee is like that!!!" she said, now angry at me.

But instead of apologizing I started laughing a lot. She was now furious at me. I then knew that Mom was gonna get involved with the situation. Then, without thinking about it, I started running to the crowd of people. Anika wouldn't act immature in front of people so that's where I was, hanging around people I didn't even know. Just then, they went to get their food. I had no idea what I was supposed to do so I went to my cousin Anya.

"Vibha, go back to the table we are about to get our food," she told me. I couldn't go back to the table so I told her everything that happened .

Finally she said, "Go back to the table and apologize to her." I went back to the table and was about to apologize when she dumped all the coffee into my McFlurry!

"Noooooooo!!!!!" I whined.

But instead of saying I'm sorry she said, "That's payback." I tried to salvage the McFlurry but it melted with the coffee.

"Just drink the coffee with the ice cream," she said with a snicker. I tried to drink the coffee plain so I could drink the McFlurry after, but the coffee mixed with the McFlurry fully, but then I tried it. To my surprise, it tasted good. Really good actually. I started mixing the coffee more with the ice cream. It was delicious, the McFlurry's creamy texture and the coffee's water-like texture made the perfect combination and I drank it in a minute just before the food came. I started drinking it more often and it was a weird but delicious combination.

A Delicious Accident

By: Sohaan Ghattamaneni

Crunch!! Chips were breaking in my mouth as the chocolatey minty ice cream overpowered the ranch. The first time I tried it, it was an accident but a delicious one. I blended the delicious chocolate mint ice cream and the creamy spicy ranch. I bet it felt like an earthquake for the chocolate ice cream and ranch. After I did all of that, I poured it into a bowl which probably felt like going down the Kilimanjaro water slide, and I dipped a spicy chip into the creamy and chocolate sauce.

And this is how the delicious accident happened. I had some ranch and chips and my auntie suddenly said, "Before Himu comes do you want some chocolate Ice cream?"

I said, "Sure!"

While I was watching TV, I dipped the chip into the ranch and ate it, but there was still more ranch on the chip. I dipped it again but I dipped it into the ice cream and that's when I noticed the accident - the yummy accident and that's how ice ranch chip was invented .

I would recommend it to you all because there are so many weird combinations. Another weird combination like pickles and peanut butter is not as good because pickles in my opinion taste terrible on it's own and peanut butter is far too sticky. However, chips are crunchy, ranch is spicy, and chocolate Ice cream is sweet, and it really is just the best combination.
